RECIPIENT'S RESPONSIBILITIES:

CIRSA will reimburse the member entity of each scholarship recipient for their expenses to attend the conference of their choice. Recipients must submit receipts for each qualifying expense (registration fees, lodging, transportation, and meals) incurred and will be reimbursed a maximum of the award amount. If the total award amount is not needed, unused funds will be kept in the Scholarship Program to be used for future awards.

Recipients will be responsible for funding the expenses not covered by the award. This scholarship is not transferable and CIRSA will not provide reimbursement if the designated recipient is not able to attend the conference.

Scholarships will be awarded prior to the conference date and scholarship recipients will be asked to complete an evaluation of their conference experience.
