

CIRSA

BUILDING & INFRASTRUCTURE

SECURITY

SEMINARS

Physical security has become paramount in the protection of personnel, assets, and infrastructure. This ¾-day course will cover time-proven methodologies of deter, delay, and respond components of active vs. passive security. The development and maintenance of a security program, along with security assessments will also be discussed. Students will be provided with a copy of CIRSA's Physical Security Checklist.

DATES & LOCATIONS

SEPTEMBER 15th Longmont

Longmont Hilton Garden Inn
470 South Martin Street
Longmont, CO 80501

SEPTEMBER 29th Winter Park

Winter Park Vintage Hotel
100 Winter Park Drive
Winter Park, CO 80482

OCTOBER 6th Montrose

Montrose Pavilion
1800 East Pavilion Place
Montrose, CO 81401

OCTOBER 20th Limon

Tamarack Golf Course
50771 Highway 71
Limon, CO 80828

REGISTRATION: 8:00 A.M. • TRAINING: 8:30 A.M. - 2:30 P.M.

To register, click the location link above or email channac@cirsa.org.

- All attendees will be provided a catered lunch at 11:30 a.m.
- The cost of this seminar is FREE for members, however there is limited space so registration is required.

PRESENTER

Sean A. Ahrens. Sean is a well-known security/resilience leader who has been providing security consulting for over 22+ years. He has been instrumental in the assessment/analysis, design, implementation of security programs for a wide array of commercial, hospitality businesses and a myriad of other entities. He is well versed in best practices, holds a number of certificates, and has documented thousands of vulnerabilities. He has worked with municipality, critical infrastructure to support security, training and help public entities make informed decisions about security risks.

SAFERTOGETHER